

CAÑIZARES FUND FOR INTERNATIONAL CASE COMPETITIONS

The Cañizares Fund made possible through the generosity of Roberto Cañizares, BS '71, MBA '74, provides travel funding for international case competitions. If you are participating in an international case competition, or a case competition with a global theme, please send an email to contactemc2@cornell.edu with the competition details and your travel budget. Applications on an on rolling bases.

To apply for the funding, send an email to contactemc2@business.cornell.edu . Applications are evaluated based on the following criteria:

- You must be an EMC<sup>2</sup> Fellow
- Provide information about the competition
- A list of team members and Cornell IDs
- Information about the competition and website
- The nature of your participation

You will receive a response within two weeks of submitting your application. Because funding is limited, not all applicants will be provided with support.

- Following Cornell regulations, all reimbursements are processed only after the trip is completed and after submission of the final written deliverable; no advance payments are permitted
  - Travelers must use Economy class (not premium, not business), no reimbursements to cash payments, and AirBNB is discouraged.
  - There is a limit of per night cost/night (please consult with EMC<sup>2</sup> to know the upper limit)
- Only EMC<sup>2</sup> Fellows will be funded (the team may have other students who are not EMC<sup>2</sup> Fellows)

If you receive funding for your case competition, you will be required to submit:

1. A 600-800 word blog describing your internship or competition experience (see format guidelines)
2. Photos /short videos from your trip to be used in social media posts
3. Receipts, including descriptions of the purchases, up to the amount agreed
4. A thank-you message to the donors

Reimbursements will take place after your trip and you have submitted all required materials.
